T'ang Studies Society Research Grant Program Guidelines and Application Procedures

With generous support from the Tang Research Foundation, the T'ang Studies Society is pleased to announce funding for grants to support research in any discipline on the Tang dynasty in a broad geographical and chronological scope. The grant can support various types of expenses that arise during research including travel, book purchases, graduate assistants, and database fees.

General Requirements and Preferences:

- This grant is intended to support research by scholars who hold the Ph.D. at any career stage and graduate students with ABD status.
- Research may involve the Sui, Tang, and Five Dynasties period (589—959 C.E.), and Tang in a global context, tracing cultural and political connections to Korea, Japan, Central Asia, and beyond. Scholarly translations of primary sources or secondary scholarship will be considered research for the purpose of this grant.

Eligibility:

- Applicants must be members of the Society in good standing at the time of application. Information on membership can be found at <http://tangstudies.org/Membership.html>
- Applicants for Research Grants also may apply for other types of Society grants during a given year, but annually can receive a maximum of one grant award and one subvention for participation on a TSS sponsored panel at the AAS conference.
- T'ang Studies Society officers are not eligible for grant funding.

Grant Information:

Amount of Award: Up to $3000

Application Deadline: July 1, 2022. Recipients will be notified by August 1, 2022.

- Except in exceptional circumstances, grant funds are ordinarily disbursed upon submission of receipts.

Application Process:

Applicants must submit:

- a two-page proposal describing the project and the specific component that this grant would support;
- a C.V.;
- a budget that itemizes anticipated expenses;
- a statement describing what support, if any, the applicant expects to receive from other sources (including from his or her institution).

The application should be emailed as a pdf to apply@tangstudies.org.
